

Beverly Veenker

Musical Theatre/ Ballet/ Yoga

Bev has 35 years experience as director of the Western Kentucky University dance program. While there, she developed a four-year syllabus for preparing dancers for professional careers. Most of the dance majors from this program have been successful on Broadway, off-Broadway, in movies and on television. Bev's formative training was entirely through Margie Long.

Ron Veenker

Music Theory/ Yoga

Ron grew up in Sioux Falls, SD where he studied oboe, English horn and percussion. As a member of the American Federation of Musicians, he played in the pit orchestra for traveling Broadway shows and with the Sioux Falls Municipal Band. At Bethel University, St. Paul, MN, he received a BA in music theory and composition. He has worked in choral music, solo voice instruction and solo bistro piano performance.

Marcus Alford

Jazz

Mr. Alford has been on the faculty of every major dance organization including D.M.A., D.E.A., Southeastern Regional Ballet Association, Boston Dance Teachers Club, CNADM, and many others. Marcus' high energy jazz classes have also inspired students at the Festival of the World in Hungary, The American College Dance Festival, The International Ballet Competition, Jackson, Mississippi, Hubbard Street Dance Studio, Chicago, Joel Ruminer Dance Camps and the North Carolina School of the Arts.

Annie Day
